

NOTHING TO FEAR (MARY'S LAMENT)

Bellan/Bruno/Stoller

She moves through the night
One woman with child
He looks to the sky
One man, by her side, all the while

For there is nothing to fear
Nothing to fear
For nothing is impossible with God

So cold and so bare
Horse and oxen by her side
"Oh Lord, are you there?"
Was her prayer at the babe's first cry

For there is nothing to fear
Nothing to fear
For nothing is impossible with God

There is nothing to fear
Nothing to fear
For nothing is impossible with God

Fear not sweet child
Your Son will save the world
He'll sit by My side
As it has been foretold
The angels cried, "He is Emmanuel!"
And for all mankind
Father, Son, and Holy Ghost
All in one

For there is nothing to fear
Nothing to fear
For nothing is impossible with God

There is nothing to fear
Nothing to fear
For nothing is impossible with God
