

WAITING FOR ME

Stoller/Bellan

With every heartbeat I take
My thoughts go with you, as I pray
Wherever you are, no matter how far
I'll be as close as the air that you breathe
Whatever I do, living without you
I can't conceive

I know you'll be waiting, waiting for me
Safe in your arms I know that I'll be
Wrapped in your love
Where no harm ever comes to me
Until that moment, until that day
All of my love will be hidden away
I can go on because I know that you'll be
Waiting for me

Up to the heavens I gaze
Are you watching the same stars, caught in its maze?
I want to feel you, someday I'll see you
In my heart you'll always be
My one true treasure, everything that I live for
Waiting for me

I know you'll be waiting, waiting for me
Safe in your arms I know that I'll be
Wrapped in your love
Where no harm ever comes to me
Until that moment, until that day
All of my love will be hidden away
I can go on because I know that you'll be
Waiting for me

Only you can keep me safe
Your love alone will show the way
Your truth gives me life
On faith alone I rely

I know you're be waiting, waiting for me, ahhh

"You know I'll be waiting, waiting right here
Don't be afraid I'll always be near
When I walk beside you, no harm can come to you
Until that moment, until that day
I'm always with you, come what may
You can go on because my love's made you new Waiting for you"
Waiting for me
